Ingredients

Mango (34%), sugar (27%), vinegar, water, habanero chilli (2%), spices, gum, Xanthan (415)

BEST BEFORE:

The Chilli Man's not a fan of additives and preservatives. That's why he doesn't use any. (Oh, and Xanthan is just a natural vegetable gum with a crazy name.) Bottled in Australia using Australian and imported ingredients.

COOL MAN

GOD MADE CHILLIS FOR MAN!

Who is the Chilli Man?

The Chilli Man was created in a huge bubbling cauldron (we'll more like a very hot saucepan) on a kitchen stove in Muswellbrook, New South Wales. He's a firecracker all right, although somewhere beneath that lustrous moustache is a sensitive side. The Chilli Man is cheekiness in a bottle, and swears by nothing but fresh fruit and vegetables to bring out the chilli bite.

No wonder the Chilli Man has fans with a serious hankering. For chilli, that is. (Or could they be after that saucy rush of endorphins?)

Serving suggestion

This Chutney is made with 100% fresh Aussie mangoes, perfect for stir fries, beautiful with potato wedges, makes a great dip mixed with sour cream or cream cheese.

The Chilli Man suggests you keep this in the fridge. You don't have to do what he says, but there's nothing pretty about chillies that've become hot under the collar and turned. REFRIGERATE AFTER OPENING.
